

SOUTHEASTERN WISCONSIN FOREIGN TRADE ZONE No. 41

Invites you to our presentation:

FOREIGN TRADE ZONES: Their Impact on Economic Development

Featured Presenters:

Daniel Griswold

National Association of Foreign Trade Zones - President

"U.S. Foreign Trade Zones: Exports, Investment, and Jobs for Wisconsin"

William Braun

United States Customs and Border Protection - Port Director

"Foreign Trade Zones and Economic Development: A CBP Perspective"

When: Monday, May 6th, 2013 || 10:00 am - 11:30 am

Where: Oak Creek Community Center
8580 South Howell Avenue, Oak Creek, WI 53154

Fee: Free - RSVP by May 1st, 2013

Who: Economic Development Groups, Politicians, Site Selectors, and other entities involved in economic development and international trade in the 12 county service area (Dodge, Fond du Lac, Jefferson, Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Rock, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha)

This presentation will be a comprehensive examination of the economic impacts of the Foreign Trade Zone program at the local, regional, and national levels. The presenters will provide two distinct perspectives on how Foreign Trade Zones have shaped and benefitted economic development.

The Port of Milwaukee is the Grantee of Foreign Trade Zone #41. As Grantee, it is our responsibility to promote and market the Foreign Trade Zone to increase the global competitiveness of area companies with the ultimate goal of increasing jobs in Southeastern Wisconsin.

Please RSVP before May 1st, 2013 to:

Nick Grahovac at (414) 286-8133 or ngraho@milwaukee.gov